Recognition

Rosemary Allison, Estates Director, Coldwell Banker Previews International is one of the country's most successful Realtors. Rosemary has set the standard for excellence throughout her career and is truly a legend. Her vision and reputation as a trend-setter in the science of marketing Ventura Counties finest estates, established her as the most innovative leader in Ventura County real estate. Rosemary's dedication to this community and strong work ethic have earned her a reputation as one of the most trusted and admired real estate professionals. Rosemary's numerous honors and accolades include recognition in the Wall Street Journal as one of the top selling 250 agents in the USA.

Dedication to community

Rosemary has dedicated decades of public service to the people of Ventura County. From championing the installation of new synchronized signals that slowed traffic and allowed pedestrians and equestrians to navigate safely to establishing a local Neighborhood Watch program, and her area Community Emergency Response Team. Rosemary Allison is well known for her hard work and generosity including Chairing the most successful American Cancer Galas in Ventura County. As quoted in a resolution presented when she was recognized in 2010 as Ventura County Volunteer of the Year: "Rosemary Allison is the yarn that weaves this close knit community together, setting an example for residents of all ages on how a committed individual can work to change the world for the better. Rosemary Allison has been recognized for her exemplary community volunteer work over the years". Since 2003, in addition to her busy career, she has served as an elected Councilwoman on the Municipal Advisory Council.

All in the family

Jim, a real estate attorney, is an esteemed member of the California Association of Realtors Legal Affairs forum. Jim's awareness of the current laws and legislation assures Rosemary's clients that they have the security of knowing that their contract has been carefully reviewed to avoid many of the problems facing sellers today. Their children, Jennifer, Joe and Cristina all are licensed agents who have become part of Rosemary's support team. They're experts in the details and subtleties that define multi-million-dollar negotiations. They possess a passion for fine architecture, and an intimate, lot-level knowledge of Ventura County. They innately understand the finer points of caring for clients with high net worth, and even higher expectations.

Experience

Marketing know-how and over 30 years of experience have established Rosemary as the leader in the Ventura County Real Estate Market. Rosemary masterfully unites sellers of the finest homes in Ventura County with quality buyers from across the globe.
